Donald James: Monstrum - AUX

Donald James' writing credentials include episodes of The Avengers, The Saint and Mission: Impossible, as well as The Penguin Dictionary Of The Third Reich. He brings his instinct for entertainment and the same breadth of subject to Monstrum, a serial-killer/police novel which is really about the Russian people and their need to escape their ...

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Monstrum

Donald James creates an entirely believable landscape in 2015 Moscow, and tells the possible story of the country through the eyes of his characters. I think one of the main reasons why I fell in love with Monstrum was the protagonist character, Vadim, a would-be passive police inspector who just wants to have a quiet job and a quiet apartment where he can miss his dead son and a wife who left ...
