The Dark House: A Novel by John Sedgwick

The Dark House is a neat thriller that builds suspense nicely and comes to a satisfying conclusion. The protagonist, Edward Rollins (but referred to throughout as Rollins), finds himself drawn into a web of deceit and murder by playing a seemingly harmless game - for fun he will he pick a random car and follow it to its destination.

The Dark House by John Sedgwick - Review | BookPage

The Dark House is a tense and intriguing debut novel from author John Sedgwick. He has created a complex and troubled hero in Edward Rollins, and a spunky, if somewhat less fleshed out, heroine in Marj. Both characters behave in a realistic fashion. There are no unbelievable heroics, no Einsteinian leaps of logic, simply basic human reaction. Granted, Rollins has his problems, and his family is certainly dysfunctional, but the characters are the heart of this story, and they do not disappoint.
