This short book is a courageous gesture on the part of Michael Parenti; certain to anger the right, Parenti just as sharply criticizes the so-called left, taking to task the Greens, NPR and Susan Sontag just to name a few.

To Kill A Nation (The Attack On Yugoslavia) by Michael Parenti London: Verso, 2000. Review by Richard Hugus. April 16, 2001. The United States has committed an enormity against the people of Yugoslavia — a crime which many have been unable to recognize because of its very size and audacity. We seem to have reached a stage in the “information age” when a completely factitious war is now possible — that is, a war based entirely on false information.
